Holiday Destinations in Thailand That PIA Offers

Bangkok: Things to Do and See

Visit city's most important spots The Grand Palace, Emerald Buddha, Reclining Buddha and Vimanmek Royal Mansion - the world's largest building made entirely of golden teak.

Cruise on the historic Chao Praya River and admire the magical views of temples or wait until the evening and you'll be stunned by the spectacular colors of the Temple of Dawn. Dine on widely enjoyed Asian cuisine in one of the city's restaurants; watch a Thai dancing performance or go to see a thrilling Muay Thai boxing match.

Come and see the most authentic of the floating markets at Damnoen Saduak, followed by an insightful afternoon of Thai culture at the Rose Garden. A memorable day out to the River Kwai, its famous bridge, Kanchanaburi province and the allied war cemeteries, followed by a train journey along the death railway itself to Nam Tok station. After lunch cruise down the Kwai Noi River in a long tall boat.

Pattaya: Things to Do and See

Watch animals performing breathtaking tricks in the Elephant Village; savour the overwhelming scent of Siriporn Orchid Farm or visit Nong Nooch Tropical Gardens, home to cacti, beautiful landscapes and a lake.

For cultural shows, The Cultural Village has dancing, sword fighting and Thai boxing. Pattaya's superb dining scene has a lot to offer - Mexican, Spanish, and Indian but make sure you treat yourself to some delicious fresh seafood. Visit Asia's largest and newest aquarium, Underwater World Pattaya, where you can watch 200 marine species including the shovelnose ray, a cross between a shark and a stingray.

A must-see is The Sanctuary of Truth, a wooden castle-like instruction, where the hand carved decorations reflect the Ancient Vision of Earth, Ancient Knowledge and Eastern Philosophy. For sporty types, enjoy the thrill of parasailing or for something more leisurely, there's excellent snorkeling and scuba diving.

Hua-Hin: Things to Do and See

Hua Hin, Thailand's Royal Beach Resort welcomes you to an unforgettable holiday experience. Besides its great 5 mile long beach Hua Hin provides the highest density of world class golf courses.

Today's visitor to Hua Hin will still sense this special atmosphere and old world charm. Besides sun-filled days on the mile-long beach there are leisure activities for the whole family from water sports to golf. The area around the town let's you discover fabulous parks and peaks, caves and waterfalls.

In the evening the winding roads with a great variety of shops make a great stroll. And the restaurants built on stilts into the sea offer superb seafood in the legendary and unsurpassed preparation of the Thai cuisine. The resort's royal endorsement which has given Hua Hin a special character of its very own.
